GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

SIXTEEN STARTERS NAMED FOR EXCELSIOR HANDICAP.

W. H. Carey, Dr. Gardner and J. C. Core Are in Most Favor-Ups and Downs of Dave Johnson-Wise Men Clean Up With Heasilp-Miller Leads Winning Mounts.

If the weather is pleasant to-day it is exsected that more than 25,000 persons will see the running of the $10,000 Excelsior Handian, one mile and a sixteenth, at Jamaica, the entries sent out by Secretary Walter Edwards last night were sixteen starters, in all probability about ten horses will go to the post at 4 o'clock. It was said at aqueduct yesterday that Dishabille, Glorifler, airngorm, Pretension and Don Diego would Philander was a doubtful starter. Boiled down, the Excelsior should provide a most teresting and exciting horse race. As far as public form goes R. F. Carman's made a crean sweep here in three races, will Kommer was engaged to ride him yesterday, August Belmont has a call on the services Mountain. If Don Diego does not go, intain, who cannot make the weight for Okenite, may ride Carey after all, in which cent the horse's chances will be greatly insed. The quick, sharp turns and the on each round, very good work in the followers intend to back Dr. Gardner for the This colt will carry top weight, and as he worked a mile on Wednesday in the mud in 1:43, with Martin up, he looks to have hance to redeem himself. Martin will have the leg up and will probably wait with he Doctor until the three-quarter pole is reached. The Newcastle Stable will be resented by J. C. Core, a good three-yearold, who will be ridden by Miller. Good adges when asked for an opinion yesterday said that they believed Carey, Dr. Gardner and J. C. Core would run one, two, three espectively. The entries and conditions

Dave Johnson bad a series of ups and downer.

Dave Johnson had a series of ups and downs resterday that would have made an ordinary go crazy. But the plunger merely smiled faintly and said that it was all "racing On Wednesday Johnson, who is in the midst of one of his losing streaks, bet a dle on Campaigner at 11 to 20, only to see Royal Onyx best the supposed sure thing in a gallop. Johnson naturally passed up Campaigner in his calculations yesterday and proceeded to wager about $8,000 on Grapple in the Flushing Stakes. According to Johnson and others, a bet on Grapple was like icking up a bag of gold on the floor of the United States mint, Consequently when Campaigner won by a head Johnson was ready to throw up his hands. But that was not the worst blow suffered by the noted speculator during the day. Jacquin started with his colors up in the fifth race. Martin rode, and in answer to queries Johnson said that the horse had bad legs, was on the verge of a breakdown and was a poor betting prop-

I shall not bet a dollar on him!" Johnson told his friends. "I tried to sell him this morning and could not find a purchaser." As no big money made its appearance in 10 to 1 in some books, but he won just the same, making all the running and pulling p apparently sound. He was entered to sold for $800 and Bob Tucker after bidding him up got him for $1,500. As a final body blow Frank Farrell's colt James B. Brady, Mimic-Busy Lady, was beaten in the last Johnson took him for the place. So ild Farrell and Diamond Jim Brady, for whom the youngster was named. But he nan third. But Millerites took him and made a great time over the victory. The stable connections but down a handsome water on Wave Crest second to Paul Pry, backed down from 20 to 10 and taken three ways, is a filly by St. Maxim-Addie Mills. Bob Tucker did not bet on his Elvira M., who ran third at 10 to 1. (a) mans started a filly named Emma Carus this race, and she was played from 15 down os, only to be left at the post. While the bookmakers got a burning on his success, they kept a lot of hig place wagers nade on Kernel, who ran as if short of work. The defeat of Grapple was another windfall for the layers, although the pikers played Campaigner because they could not bet on Farrell's horse at the prohibitive price. Marster, too, lost a bunch of place wagers at 7 to 5. Previous winners of the Flushing Stakes were Mazarino, Sister Stella, Rare Perfume, idney Lucas, Intrusive, Potente, Namtor,

Grenade and Broadcloth.

The wise men had an inning in the fourth race that made the layers squest. They did not want Fred Burlew's Athlete, who opened the choice at 7 to 5, at any price, but went to Paul Rainey's Heaslip in a pell mell rush. rom 3 to 1 Heaslip was soon wiped off the poards and he won in a romp. The public. Whilete was disgracefully beaten, but that was merely a part of the racing game. Louis ella's followers backed Hyperion II, both ways, but they got nothing but a lemon, as Workmaid, a neglected long shot, cut them out of the place by a few inches. St. Valenne was another effective money burner, as he was taken straight and place by the handi-

The books got all the money in the fifth race, as acquin, overlooked, won. The Millerites played Battleaxe across the boards in a desultory way, but the smart fellows dropped big money on old Savable, reduced from 5 16 to 5, while Fustian carried the coin of the Western crowd, who lowered him from to 4. #### GOLFING AMID THE PINES. Pred Herreshoff Wins the Score Medal Finely.

There was an old time golfing gathering to open the tournament of the Lakewood Country Club yesterday, those on the links including John Reid, first president of our St. Andrews, and Mrs. Reid. John Miley started off sixty-four players for the thirtysix hole qualifying round, the entrants as usual at Lakewood coming from links far apart. Fred Herreshoff of Garden City and Ekwanok won the low score with 164, C. West Tainter, who played very steadily, being sec ond with 172.

In the morning Herreshoff's 84 was best, while W. T. West of Princeton, H. M. Forrest of Philadelphia and Jasper Lynch of Lakewood were tied at 85. A drive out of bounds on the seventeenth lost Lynch the opportunity of equalling Herreshoff. Peters, who had the only 5 on the ninth of the morning of face the barrier, while James R. Keene's against the wind, had 3s on the tenth and thilander was a doubtful starter. Boiled thirteenth, but the sixteenth hole was a disappointment. Here he was bunkered on his second and rolled up ten strokes. Harold Sands, who had a 2 on the eleventh, took W. H. Carey, the California horse who has an 8 on the sixteenth in the same way Presbrey was also going fast until he got the favorite. He carries 110 pounds and an 8 through the medium of the same Herreshoff's success was an indorsement of his recent tournament successes at Pine hurst and Hot Springs. He was getting a tremendous distance on the drives and keeping right in direction. He went out in 4 short homestretch may prove obstacles in the way of Carey, some persons think, but that made the tenth a 5 and the thirteenth will not prevent the public from backing him.

If Dishabille starts she will be played, no doubt, as she is a game mare and can handle the weight alloted to her. Big Tim Sullivan's Sellowers intend to beek Dr. Gerteer for the starts of the starts and three sellowers intend to beek Dr. Gerteer for the starts of the starts o

GENTLEMAN JOCKEY SUSPENDED Pimileo Stewards Dissatisfied With Mr

BALTIMORE, Md., April 25 .- The racing on the Pimlico track to-day was marked by the suspension by the stewards of R. C. Taylor, the well known local gentleman jockey, who was recently restored to good standing. Mr. Taylor had the mount on Tarpon, the favorite, in the steeplechase and continually held the horse in restraint, allowing Guardian to gain a lead, which he could not overcome. The case will be investigated by the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association. In the meantime Mr. Taylor will be forced to remain on the ground. The summary:

AMPAIGNER, IN FORM REVERSAL. TRIMS FARRELL'S HORSE.

Jack Martin Receives an Ovation on the Way to the Post -Heastip Breezes Home for Rainey-Newcastle Stable Wins Two Races and Hot Shot Takes 'Chase

Jack Martin, who was restored to good standing by the Jockey Club the other day, made his first appearance in the saddle at Aqueduct vesterday, but had the misfortune to be defeated on Frank J. Farrell's Grapple, a 1 to 6 favorite in the Flushing Selling Stakes. at a mile. When Martin appeared in front of he crowd he received an ovation, hundreds heering the young man lustily, while others temonstration and showed that in spite of ose the confidence of the racing public.

Of all the sure things that have been handed ip on a racetrack in times past Grapple ooked the surest. paigner to beat, it looked like stealing money to take 1 to 8 about Farrell's good plater. Only n Wednesda Campaigner, with 22 pounds more than he carried in yesterday's race, w s easily beaten by Royal Onyx, a maiden. On that occasion Campaigner, with Miller up, was a prohibitive favorite at 9 to 20. But he could not set up a decent gallop and was disgracefully beaten. On the strength of this performance, therefore nobody, unless it was a few shrewd insiders, gave him a chance to beat Grapple. With Henry up and 6 to 1 against him however, Campaigner, who is trained by James McLaughlin, proceeded to cut out the pace. Martin took hold of Grapple and let Campaigner sail along in front to the head of the stretch, where Marster moved up and the trio straightened out for home on even terms. Marster soon sto ped, but Campaigner, who clung to the rail, had a world of speed and when Martin attempted to go to the front he found that his rival had | lenty which Campaigner, with 84 pounds, stood the drive with remarkable gameness and yon the race by a head in 1 40 2-5. T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Hot Shot, a favorite t 6 to 5, and superbly ridden by Ray, won the Glendale Steeplechase, at about two and a soon as Ray took him to the front after the second time around the course it was all over. Hot Shot won by eight lengths in the most impressive style, while the Bonnie Brook Stable's Yama Christy, 7 to 1, finished second, four lengths before W. G. Brokaw's Pagan The latter nound J W Kernel, 14 to 5, second choice, out of third The time was 5:24.

Paul J. Rainey's Heaslip, beaten down from 3 to 1 to 8 to 5, was much the best in the handicap at six furlongs. Radtke took him to the front at the outset and the Commoner colt was never headed, winning easily by Workmaid, 25 to 1, who was the runner up all the way, beat L. A. Cella's Hyperion II., 7 to 2, a neck for the place. Fred Burlew's Athlete, who opened the choice at 7 to 5, had no speed and was never dangerous, a performance that was in striking contrast to his sensational victory last Monday over Orphan Lad and Dr. Gardner.

The Newcastle Stable made its first bow of the season by winning both of the twoto 1, got home in the opening event, Miller easing him at the end, where he beat W. O. Joplin's Orena, 10 to 1, by a length and a half, The latter had a head over Robert Tucker's Elvira M., 10 to 1. Coincident, 15 to 1, was a head back. Kerry, 9 to 5 favorite, with Beckman up, was nowhere. The time for the four and a half furlongs was 0:57 2-5. Wave Crest, a hot odds on favorite, was the New castle Stable's other winner. Miller breezin him home in the last race three lengths front of F. A. Forsythe's Fordello, 8 to 1 with Frank J. Farrell's coit, James B. Brady 16 to 5, two lengths back. The time was 0:56. Dave Johnson's Jacquin, neglected at 6 to 1 nade all the pace, with Martin up, in the fifth race, at six and a half furlongs and wo easily by a length and a half in 1:21. HARVARD FOOTBALL SCHEDULE.

Substitution of Navy for Army Game the Only Change of Note.

Cambridge, April 25 .- The Harvard footoall schedule was given out to-night by Manager Dutcher of the football team. The schedule has been drawn up and approved but owing to the fact that all the arrange ments about guarantees had not been completed it was withheid until the present time.

The Harvard schedule differs in no essential point this year from those of the past except that there is no game with the Army. In place of the Army game Harvard will play the Navy on October 19 at Annapolis. It will be the first time that a Harvard football team has played as far south as this, and the game will be welcomed by Harvard graduates in that vicinity, as it will give them a chance of seeing their team play without taking the usual long journey. All the games will be played at home except the one with the Navy. The schedule is as follows:

October 2, Bowdoln, October 5, Malue, October 9, Baies, October 12, Williams, October 19, Annapolis, October 2, Carlisle; November 16, Dartmouth; November 23, Yale. pleted it was withheld until the present time.

He followed it in a few minutes by another. Within a half a minute of the whistle at the close of the first half Schutheiss scored the last goal for the Ithacans. But Dartmouth's Captain Still Contends

That Umpire Was Wrong. BOSTON, April 25.-Capt. Skillin of the Dartmouth baseball team to-night made public a letter which had been sent to Capt. Paine of the Brown team relative to the Brown-Dartmouth game of Wednesday, which was forfeited to Brown because of a dispute over the decision of the umpire. This letter says:

"Although I think it is generally conceded that the umpire's decision yesterday afterthat the umpire's decision yesterday afternoon was clearly wrong. I have some doubt as to whether that justified me in taking my team off the field. Of course our grievance was against the umpire alone and not in any way against Brown or against the Brown nine, whose treatment of us was all right. Under our agrangement for this season you are entitled to a full nine inning game with Dartmouth at Providence, and in order to square this thing so far as possible and show our good will toward Brown we will be glad to come to Providence on any open date that can be arranged and we will not ask you for any guarantee. The New Yorks beat the Bostons yesterday othe American League, and the Philadelphias. the have not lost a game since they were in New York, defeated the Bostons. Rain pre vented the two games in the West, and the New Yorks broke the tie with Cleveland for second place. The results:

A quick and pronounce change of form the pitching of Tom Hughee, which is synonymous with the same sort of a change of form is the batting of the New Yorks. eventually corralled a victory for the Hilloppers against the Washingtons vesterday It was a profitable change for the New York team, disastrous for the Cantilon crew The score was very one sided, but the one sidedness did not materialize until the eighth nning, in which round the New Yorks smeared Hughes's pitching all over the campus. made eight hits in that inning and were belting the ball on a line, dropping it safely beween the harried outfielders and beating out teasers around the feet of the infielders.

The value of consistency was shown by the difference in the work of Hughes and Orth.

difference in the work of Hughes and Orth. Hughes was invulnerable for a while. He had a wide curve that he was placing nicely, and the New Yorks could not gauge it in the first five innings. But when they did diagnose its course they shredded it. Orth pitched with a degree of effectiveness that varied little throughout the game. It was a loose fielding contest, some of the blunders being because the fielders were hurried into making them and some due to carelessness. Hurst's decisions on balls and strikes caused much grumbling from the players, particularly from Schlaffy of the Washingtons, who is one of the busiest growlers that has happened along this way in some time. He kicks on the least provocation. However, Hurst was off on his decisions.

The first five innings of the game were barren and ouickly disposed of, there being only two solid hits in that period. One was a tearing three bagger by Hickman, a beautiful smash to the centre field fence that a less lumbering traveller would have made his leviathan larrup, but he did not get in. Perrine sent a short fly to Brockett, Warner hit to Orth and was snuffed out at first, and Hughes flied to Chase. The Washingtons broke into brackets in the next session. Ganley singled hard to left. Schlaffy bunted and was retired through Chase's quick fielding. Cross doubled and scored Ganley, Old Man Lave getting around on an outfield fly and Laporte's low throw of Altizer's roller.

The New Yorks were harmless for two-thirds of their half of the sixth. After Hoffman and Conroy had been stowed away, Kid Stinger Elberfeld blazed a single to centre. This was the first hit off Hughes, and Chase was so pleased with the novel sight that he repeated. His hit was a grounder to Perrine, which he outfooted to first. Perrine threw to first in a desperate hope of nailing his man, but threw low, and the ball went out of sight between the stands. Elberfeld and Chase jogged home. Perrine's throw merely anticipated matters. Laporte was hit by a pitched ball. Moriarity singled to centre singled and scored Orth. Elberfeld was merciful and grounded out to Hickman. Chase, less magnanimous, tapped a two bagger over Schlafly's head and scored Hoffman and Conroy. City lad, and they were mighty lucky to get that.

The article of ball the Quakers displayed in the early innings was decidedly in contrast to that of Wednesday. Vesterday the infield was slow and outside of Doolin played with hardly any dash or snap to their plays. Gleason once failed to cover second in time on a chance to complete a double play with Doolin and that blunder gave the visitors two runs in the flith, while Bransfield's low throw in the third virtually presented New York with three in the third. moston (N. L.), 6: BROOKLYN, 1.

The warm wave of yesterday thawed out the Bostons to such an extent that they played rings around the Brooklyns and took a fall out of the luckless Donovanites by a score of 6 to 1. Tenney's troupe jumped into the battle with great zest and were equipped with a supply of base hits that easily carried the day. There was ragged fielding by both teams, and it was not a particularly interesting engagement. The story in a nutshell is that the Brooklyns could not ticularly interesting engagement. The story in a nutshell is that the Brooklyns could not hit Lindaman, while the Bostons could hit Pastorious.

Pastorious struck out Beaumont and Howard in the first inning, but this promise of efficient twirling by the Brooklyn boxman was not fulfilled. In the next inning Bridwell drew four balls, and Ritchey neatly sacrificed. Bridwell went only to third on Brain's hit to centre, but he came home on Brown's safety. The next two batters struck out, so that the inning did not yield all it threatened to.

In the third the Bostons were still busier. Tenney flung a two bagger along the left foul line. Jordan fumbled Beaumont's grass-cutter and Howard singled and scored Tenney. Howard stole second, and after Bridwell had been scuelched, Alperman to Jordan, Beaumont and Ritchey beat it home on Ritchey's lift to short centre.

Beaumont roamed the circuit in the fifth inning on a base on balls, Howard's sacrifice, Bridwell's infield hit and Ritchey's smack to right. The Brooklyns made their only run in the same inning, the component parts being Ritter's base on balls, a single by Pastorious and another single by Alperman—all this after two were out. Bates saingle, Ritter's high throw to catch him stealing and Beaumont's bingle gave the Bostons their sixth run. The score:
